The QTS Assessment Only Route is designed for graduates with considerable experience of teaching in at least two schools (second school experience at least 20 days) or settings and the evidence to demonstrate teacher standards at least a 'good' standard. The route does not include any training; the candidate must be ready for assessment at application. The Assessment Only Route allows you to be assessed for QTS in England without further training.

The length of the process is usually no more than 3 months. Start and end dates are negotiated with candidate, school and NMITTP.
